We believe that all people have a basic right to communicate. This includes developing social closeness, expressing preferences, and much more. Print the NJC Communication Bill of Rights at www.asha.org/njc

Read 'Grumpy Groundhog' by Maureen Wright. WILL the groundhog come out or stay in?

For which tasks can you say "I do it MYSELF"?

myself

Talk about what makes you feel AFRAID.

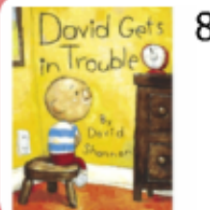

What will you WATCH today?

Who is at SCHOOL today?

Read 'David Gets in Trouble' by David Shannon. Talk about his TROUBLE and HOW he says it's not his fault.

Are you THIRSTY?

Pick up your STUFF. STUFF things in your backpack.

Ouch! Talk about when you get HURT. Model so AAC learners can tell us when they HURT.

HOW MANY valentine cards will you give out?

Read 'Love From the Very Hungry Caterpillar' by Eric Carle. LOVE

Valentine's Day

Let's SING a NEW song together!

HOW MANY days are in the month of February?

Sometimes when a person is sad, we say their feelings are HURT.

Who has a WATCH? Is it a smart WATCH?

Talk about when things are WET - dishes, laundry, bath time.

President's Day

Read 'John, Paul, George, & Ben' by Lane Smith. Learn about our founding FATHERS. Did they get into TROUBLE?

What was George Washington rumored to tell his FATHER?

How many GIRLS are in your class? Or in your house?

HOW is the weather?

Count HOW MANY...

Take a poll: How many people like...
- chocolate
- coffee
- rainy days
- the color pink

Tomorrow starts a NEW month!
