

Jenna is learning Spanish.
Her teacher speaks to her
in Spanish for at least part of the day.

Eli is learning French.
His teacher speaks to him
in French for at least part
of the day.

Jason is learning AAC.
Doesn't it make sense for others to 'speak AAC' to help him learn?
