

For the Love of Core - February 2018

Sunday

Monday

Tuesday

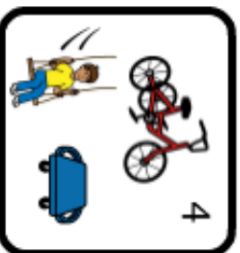

Wednesday

Thursday

Friday

Saturday

Target words: up, down, in, out, on, off, stop, go, same, different

4

5
During play and motor activities this week, focus on the words "on, off, stop, go."

6

7
These busy books by Usbourne are so fun! The pages have a track for the car (or a plane, bug, etc) to GO!

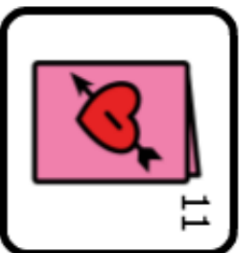

9

9
Let kids control adults behavior through a stop/go game.

10

10
When giving choices, be sure to include a choice of something DIFFERENT.

11

12
As you prepare valentines, talk about how the FROM name is the SAME on each card.

13

13
Put valentines IN the box. Take them OUT and read them.

15

15
Will any of your cards hang UP on the wall?

17

17
Play "Can't Stop the Feeling!" from Trolls to practice STOP.

18

18
Do you have the day OFF tomorrow?

20

20
Do you get OFF the bus each day?

21

21
Check out this new book by Peter Reynolds called The Word Collector.

23

23
Can you knock it DOWN?

19

19
President's Day

20

20
Do you get OFF the bus each day?

28

28
Read Ada Twist, Scientist by Andrea Beaty. A smart young Ada is a late-talker, and a brilliant child with big questions.

24

24
Pick favorite GoNoodle songs and match it to a core word. Try "Walk up the Stairs" for UP!

25

25
Need a song to practice GO? Let it GO!

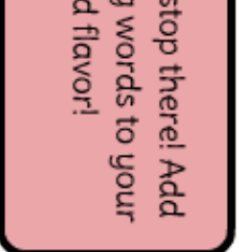

26

26
Take a vote on books or songs you've read or heard in class. Thumbs UP or thumbs DOWN.

27

27
Read Ada Twist, Scientist by Andrea Beaty. A smart young Ada is a late-talker, and a brilliant child with big questions.

28

28
Start with core, but don't stop there! Add interesting and motivating words to your day, too. Fringe words add flavor!