

When we tell stories, people understand us best when we include these things:	<h2 style="text-align: center;">Words We Can Use</h2>
 Who was involved?	I, me, you, [names], she, it, friend, teacher, Mom, brother, neighbor, man, girl, baby, animal, stranger, worker, student, something else
 What happened first?	do/did, go/went, see/saw, tell/told, know/knew, think/thought, get/got, like/liked, have/had, say/said, can/could, something else
 What else happened?	next, then, also, some, again, before, after, with, because, about, around, not, something else
 Where did this take place?	here, there, home, school, inside, outside, far away, close, place, store, up, in, beside, under, town, state, country, planet, different, not, something else
 When did it happen?	today, yesterday, last, day, week, month, year, start, time, before, after, around, long, short, remember, something else
 How did it feel?	feel/felt, good, bad, best, scary, nice, proud, embarrassed, terrific, frustrated, worried, awesome, amazing, unusual, something else